OpenStreetMap.org

- Vabatahtlike poolt loodud kaart

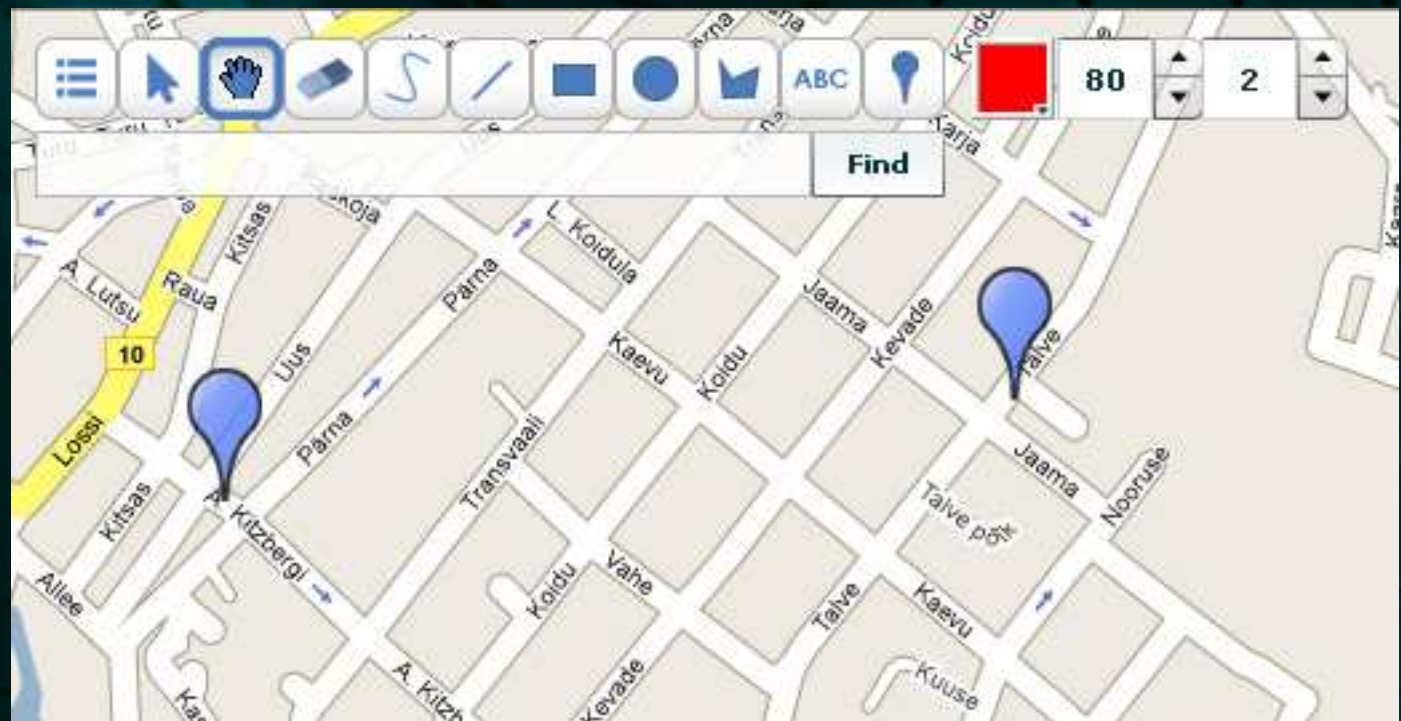

The screenshot shows the OpenStreetMap website interface. At the top, there are navigation tabs: View, Edit, History, Export, GPS Traces, and User Diaries. The main map area displays a street map of Kuressaare, Estonia, with various streets labeled such as Ringtee, Kihelkonna mnt, and Kõnnu. On the left side, there is a sidebar with the OpenStreetMap logo and the text 'The Free Wiki World Map'. Below this, there are links for 'Help & Wiki', 'News blog', 'Shop', and 'Map key'. A yellow banner promotes the '2009 OpenStreetMap Conference, The State of the Map, July 10-12 in Amsterdam!'. At the bottom of the sidebar is a search box with the text 'Search Where am I?' and a 'Go' button.

Scribblemaps.com
